Art Unit: 1616

Claims 1-151 are pending in this application which was filed under 35 USC 371 as the national stage application of PCT/US01/16550, filed May 21, 2001, which claims the benefit under 35 USC 119(e) of US Provisional Applications No. 60/206,628 (May 24, 2000), 60/205,524 (May 19, 2000), 60/273,234 (March 2, 2001), and 60/274,368 (March 8, 2001).

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 100, 101, and 145-151, drawn to surfactant compounds and compositions.

Group II, claim(s) 102, 103, drawn to pesticidal compositions.

Group III, claim(s) 104 and 144, drawn to herbicidal compositions and methods.

Group IV, claim(s) 1-99, 105-143, drawn to herbicidal glyphosate compositions.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I, drawn to a collection of several possible surfactant compounds and compositions lacks unity of invention with Groups II-IV because: there is no common structure among the surfactant compounds, the surfactant component is not necessary for the pesticidal or herbicidal utility of Groups II-IV, and the surfactant compounds and compositions of Group I would find utility in other industrial areas unrelated to agricultural uses.

Group II, drawn to pesticidal compositions, lacks unity of invention with herbicidal groups III and IV because a pesticidal composition (e.g., an insecticidal or fungicidal composition) does not require the presence of herbicidal agents for utility. Further, the target organisms are different and the mode of action and method of entry into the target organism or its cells are different.

Group III, drawn to herbicidal compositions, lacks unity of invention with the glyphosate compositions of Group IV because there is no common structural core between the N-phosphonomethylglycine structure of glyphosate, and "herbicides", which may have vastly different chemical structures ranging from simple inorganic molecules (e.g., NaCl) to complicated microbiologically produced phytotoxins.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows: compositions comprising a specific set of components, i.e., a specific surfactant compound as provided, for example, in the Markush groups in claims 100, 103, and 110, a specific active agent (Groups II or III, or glyphosate of Group IV), and other components such as the dicarboxylic acids of claim 26.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

All claims are generic.

The species do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: there is no single structural core which is consistent throughout the listed surfactants which may be used alone in surfactant compositions, or in pesticidal or herbicidal compositions as claimed herein.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
